In September 1960 Robert M. Dwyer became a member of the teaching staff of the newly opening Dighton Rehoboth Regional High School. Behind him was a varied and rich career: graduation from Providence College in 1930 with a Bachelor of Philosophy degree; post-graduate study at Notre Dame University in 1931-2; Director of Louisville and Jefferson County Children's Home in Anchorage, Kentucky; Recreational Director for West Warwick, Rhode Island; Rhode Island State C.Y.O. Athletic Director; professional writer of short stories which appeared in various national publications.

His ability and experience in writing were the qualities which the administration hoped would be beneficial to the students at Dighton-Rehoboth. Robert Dwyer not only fulfilled these hopes but, as a person, had much more to offer. With wholehearted devotion he took a deep interest in his students, his teaching, his fellow-workers, the growth of the school.

In 1966 he demonstrated his own professional growth by receiving his Master's Degree in Education from Bridgewater State College. From 1963 through 1968 he was advisor to the Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School Newspaper. In 1970 he became President of the Dighton-Rehoboth Regional Teachers' Association.

When in early January of 1971 he became ill, students and co-workers were saddened. His very presence, his kindliness, his quick and gentle wit, his willingness to listen, his humble manner, his honesty in all dealings, his ability to be direct yet considerate had become part of the everyday lives of all at Dighton-Rehoboth — and we all missed him. While he suffered in silence, we hoped for his return.

A student who transferred from Dighton-Rehoboth shortly before Mr. Dwyer's death has expressed well in a letter to Mr. Dwyer how we all feel:

"To The Man:

. . . I'm leaving Wednesday and since I won't be able to say goodbye to you in person, I'll have to say it in this letter. Everyone here is sad because you're not feeling well. Get well soon and teach these kids what it's all about. This has always been one of my favorite classes because it's real . . . you know what I mean . . . The old school just isn't the same without you . . ."

and it isn't.

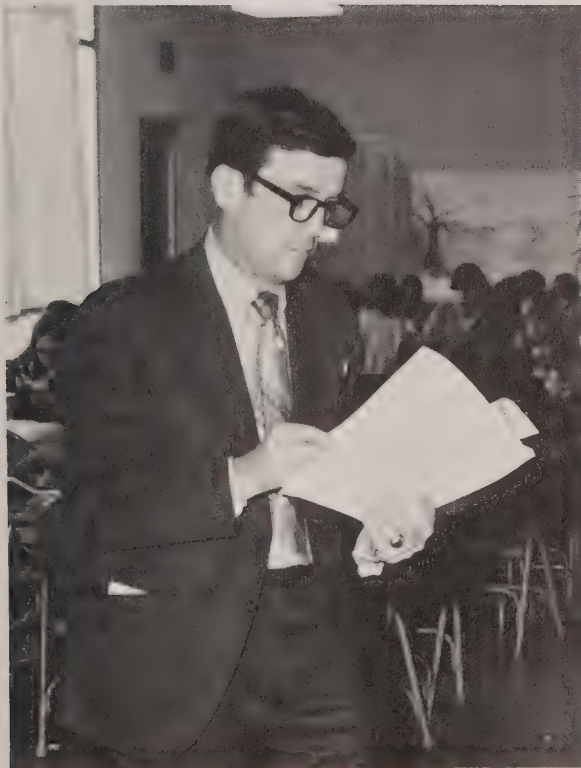

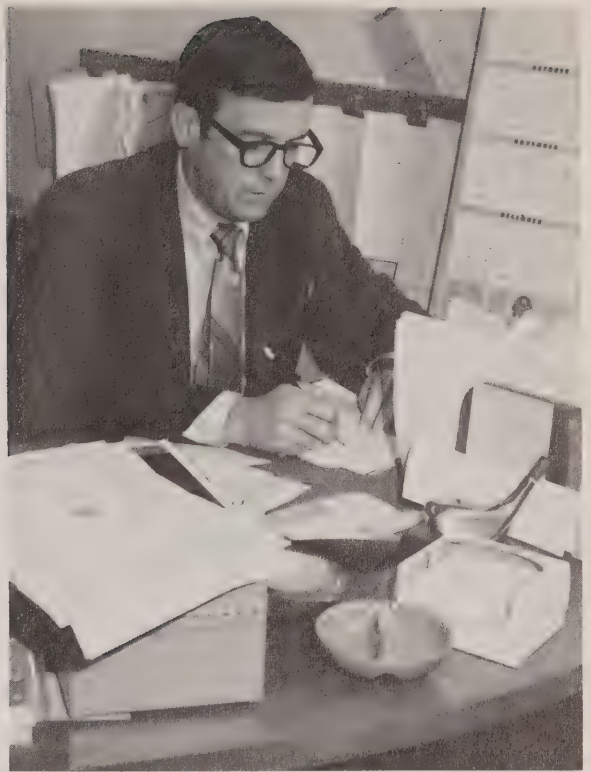

In memory of Robert M. Dwyer the Dighton-Rehoboth Regional Teachers' Association is sponsoring an academic scholarship for a 1971 graduate to attend a Massachusetts state college for four years.

"To lose a friend is the greatest of all evils, but endeavour rather to rejoice that you possessed him than to mourn his loss."
